

NOCSAE SUMMER STANDARDS COMMITTEE MEETING

NOCSAE welcomes interested parties to attend the Summer Standards Committee Meeting on Friday, July 22, 2022, in Portland, Oregon. At the meeting, the NOCSAE Standards Committee will discuss updates to athletic equipment standards and take voting when needed. The NOCSAE Scientific Advisory Committee and Technical Director will also share reports. The full meeting agenda will be available on the NOCSAE website on or before June 22.

The Summer Standards Committee Meeting will convene on Friday, July 22 at 1:00 PT / 2:00 PM MT / 3:00 PM CT / 4:00 PM ET and is anticipated to last approximately two hours

If you plan to attend in-person:

You must email Melinda Cook at mlc@orlawyers.net. Please contact her by July 8 to ensure a seat.

If you plan to attend the meeting remotely:

You must register in advance at this link by Thursday, July 21. You will receive a “Go To” Meeting link to join the meeting remotely.

Agenda Information

The meeting agenda is available here. In advance of the meeting on July 22, please check this link for any modifications to the agenda.

Questions and Comments

If you have questions or comments related to the agenda for the upcoming meeting, NOCSAE requests that you submit these in advance to Executive Director Mike Oliver by July 8 at mike.oliver@nocsae.org.

Remote participants will have the option to submit questions and comments during the meeting, but please note that these will be prioritized based on relevance to agenda items and motions under discussion. If your question or comment is not pertinent to the meeting discussion, NOCSAE will follow up after the meeting.